Description

Soligorsk Poultry Factory is one of the leaders in the production of chicken eggs and absolute leader in the production of quail eggs. The daily volume of chicken eggs is about 1 million, and quail eggs is more than 350 thousand pieces. The poultry factory constantly offers its customers new items. Among them, smoked chicken and quail eggs, marinated chicken and quail eggs, as well as washed and disinfected eggs. These products are important for catering systems, cafes and in-house production of retail chains as they save time and low in price. With care about the health of the buyer, we produce functional products: "Molodetskie" chicken eggs and quail eggs enriched with selenium and vitamin E. The company is continuously working towards improving products quality. To date, the following ISO 9001:2015, HACCP, HALAL quality systems have been successfully implemented and, at the implementation stage, the food safety system FSSC-22000.
